REDS OFFERED TRUCE COMPROMISE

State, Federal Agents Seek Source Of Swine Feed Carrying Anthrax

Cincinnati Eyes Milk From Areas

48 Farms Placed Under Quarantine By Health Aides

COLUMBUS, March 15 — (AP) — State and federal agencies have joined efforts to combat anthrax—the livestock disease that has killed 104 hogs in 17 Ohio counties since Feb. 27.

Nobody knows where the disease comes from. Some authorities think its origin might be in bone meal, either imported or domestic. Much of the meal has been imported into Ohio recently—from France, Belgium, Egypt, India, Central Europe and South America.

The U. S. Food and Drug Administration is examining samples of swine feed taken from processing plants which mix it.

Feed found on one infected farm was found positive for anthrax. That feed was mixed and manufactured by the Buchselt Division of Inland Product, Inc., near Columbus, said Dr. Harry Geyer, state veterinarian.

Quarantines have been placed on 48 herds of hogs on as many farms. No hogs from these farms can be sent to slaughter without state approval, Geyer said.

QUARANTINES have been placed on herds in the following counties:

Clark, Clinton, Clermont, Fayette, Franklin, Hardin, Athens, Green, Highland, Knox, Licking, Miami, Meigs, Pickaway, Morgan, Ross and Warren.

Officials said it was possible that bone meal being used by plants other than the Buchselt division was contaminated. Geyer said the "bad feed" found on the infected farm might have been contaminated from another source.

Efforts are underway to track down the meal to its source. The Columbus plant was decontaminated Friday, authorities said.

Dr. Joseph Batsche, superintendent of meat and dairy in Health Department, announced Friday night that no milk would be accepted in the city from any farm that has a case of anthrax. He said that so far only one farm—in Clinton County—has been denied permission to ship milk into the city.

Cincinnati's health commissioner, Dr. Carl A. Wilzbach, said he had assigned a veterinarian from his department to Clinton County, where the outbreak was most severe. Wilzbach said he wanted to (Continued on Page Two)

Auto Workers Set Up Panel To Oust Reds

DETROIT, March 15 — (AP) — The International Executive Board of the CIO United Auto Workers has set up a board of administration for its giant Ford Local 600 and directed it to fire any officers found to be "members of, or subservient to" the Communist Party.

The unprecedented action followed an all-day session, which broke up shortly after midnight, at which Carl Stellato, president of the local, and his staff had been ordered to show cause why they should not be ousted.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther, chairman of the new six-man Board of Administration, had charged Stellato, Vice President Patrick F. Rice, Recording Secretary William R. Hood and Treasurer W. G. Grant of Local 600 of failing to abide by the UAW constitution, which prohibits Communists from holding office.

In its statement, which took several hours to draft following end of the show-cause hearing, the UAW Executive Board declared that, in its opinion:

"The difficulties in Local 600 arise from the manipulations of a small but well disciplined Communist group which exerts influence far beyond its actual members."

Fund For Children's Home Kiddies Ends With More Than $700 In Kitty

A special donation fund set up for youngsters of the Pickaway County Children's Home was ended Saturday with more than $700 in the kitty.

The fund was started more than two weeks ago after the Home youngsters lost an estimated $700 worth of personal possessions in a fire which leveled a utility garage.

Insurance failed to cover the personal loss suffered by the kiddies of the Home, who had worked hard to earn the money for the possessions.

Then a double-barrel donation fund was set up by Mayor Ed Amey and city firemen to restore the personal possessions of the youngsters. Residents of the county were asked to open their pocketbooks to give the Children's home youngsters a hand.

Local residents performed the job admirably following a slow start, with more than $700 in cash taken in, along with a multitude of new and used toys and sports gear.

The fund was given a solid boost this week when J. W. Eshelman and son gave $200. Other local persons and organizations fattened the collection with gifts of from $1 to $25.

Persons attending Friday's wrestling show in Pickaway Fairgrounds Coliseum chipped in $47.54 to the fund. Other last-minute collections Friday consisted of $5 from Dr. Dave Goldschmidt; Art Steele, girls' bike; George VanCamp, football and two softballs; and three $5 gifts from "friends."

Winfield Koch, superintendent of the Home, Saturday said he and the youngsters would never be able to express their gratitude enough to the persons who gave. "It just thrills the kids to know there are persons in the county who care enough for them to help them out this way," Koch said.

BRIBERY COUNTS IGNORED

St. Louis Tax Aide Guilty Of Misconduct

ST. LOUIS, March 15 — (AP) — A federal court jury convicted the one-time St. Louis internal revenue collector, James P. Finnegan, on two misconduct-in-office charges early Saturday.

The 11 men and one woman freed him of three other counts—including two of bribery.

Finnegan, 51, personal friend of President Truman, took the decision quietly, but members of his family in the courtroom appeared stunned. The verdict came at 1:18 a. m. after nine hours of deliberation.

U. S. District Judge Rubey M. Hulen will pronounce sentence March 24. Maximum penalty under the conviction is four years in prison and $20,000 in fines.

Jenner Seeks Changes In Japan Treaty

WASHINGTON, March 15 — (AP) — A series of reservations drafted by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind) shape up as the sole hurdles before early Senate approval of the Japanese peace treaty and three related Pacific security compacts.

Jenner is expected to submit nine amendments Monday when the Senate resumes consideration of the treaties following a weekend recess. All are opposed by the State Department as needless delays to the far-reaching postwar Pacific settlement.

Strong bipartisan support for the treaties as already signed, which was evident when debate started Friday, appeared to leave little chance for adoption of changes.

Jenner as urged four changes in the peace treaty itself. They include provisions that it should not limit American or Japanese sovereignty, give Russia any claim to the Kurile Islands or imply recognition of the wartime Yalta and Potsdam agreements, nor abrogate United States claims for repayment of occupation costs or for "just and proper" claims of American citizens.

A fourth reservation would express support for Nationalist China's claim to sovereignty over the Chinese mainland, including Manchuria, as well as Formosa.

Hero Is Father

SANTA MONICA, March 15 — (AP) — Audie Murphy, 27-year-old actor who was World War II's most decorated soldier, is a father. His wife Pamela, 29, an airways hostess, gave birth here Friday to an eight-pound boy.

acceptance of $5,000 from the Warwick Hotel Corp. for helping the firm in a claim against the Coast Guard for damage during World War II occupancy, and for taking $3,000 from the American Lithofold Corp. to represent the St. Louis printing firm in connection with a Reconstruction Finance Corp. loan.

The jurors found that Finnegan, by accepting these sums, violated a federal law prohibiting officers and employees from taking compensation from outside parties to represent them before government agencies.

In his defense testimony, Finnegan denied he had represented either firm in connection with government matters, adding he received the money for outside work which he did for the companies.

The ex-collector, who resigned last April while investigations of his office were underway, will remain free under $5,000 bond until sentenced.

Finnegan is the second former tax collector convicted of illegal acts while performing federal duties.

Denis W. Delaney, former collector at Boston, was sentenced Jan. 29 to two years in prison and fined $10,500 for bribery and mishandling of tax cases.

A third collector, James G. Smyth of San Francisco, is under indictment on charges of tampering with income tax returns to defraud the government.

Four other collectors have been dismissed or resigned under pressure.

Wilmington Man Robbed, Slugged

CINCINNATI, March 15 — (AP) — William Duddy, 48, of Wilmington, a poultry and egg dealer, was beaten and robbed of $140 here Friday night.

Duddy reported to police he had just sold some chickens and eggs to a man in Cincinnati's west end. He said the man told him to wait and he'd bring back another customer. The customer and another man then returned and forced Duddy into a nearby building. They took his wallet and clubbed him on the head with a pistol. Duddy suffered head lacerations.

Wealthy Heiress Returns To Home

NEW YORK, March 15 — (AP) — A Canadian real estate heiress, missing since Monday from her Greenwich Village apartment, returned home Friday night.

The woman, Mrs. Mavis Chaffey Ramus, 32, told police she had been visiting friends and offered no further explanation for her absence.

Truman Address May Bring Tip

Kefauver Accepts Floridan's Challenge; Ike Recall Hinted

WASHINGTON, March 15 — (AP) — The nation expectantly awaited President Truman's off-the-cuff speech Saturday afternoon for a possible hint about his political intentions.

The President has remained mum since the lanky Tennessee senator, Estes Kefauver, won the popularity poll and all eight New Hampshire convention delegate votes in the two-way Democratic race last Tuesday.

Truman has not said whether he will seek reelection and the general belief was that he would not break his silence until later.

He was to speak in New York before 3,000 high school editors attending a convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association on the subject: "Citizenship."

Elsewhere in the presidential battle:

Sen. Kefauver accepted a dare of Gov. Fuller Warren to enter Florida's Democratic presidential preference primary.

THE FLORIDA governor has been smarting under criticism of him and some of his friends by Kefauver's Senate Crime Investigating Committee.

Sen. Robert A. Taft's supporters retained control of Louisiana's Republican State Central Committee over Eisenhower backers in a Baton Rouge meeting.

Taft forces predicted he would get "a right good majority" of the 13 National GOP convention delegates to be chosen in nine North Carolina Republican district conventions over the weekend; said signed Taft pledges would be received from 68 candidates for the Illinois GOP delegation; and said there was "little question" he would get all of New Mexico's 14 convention delegates.

Paul G. Hoffman, former Marshall Plan administrator and now president of the Ford Foundation, left for Paris to "talk politics" with Eisenhower. Hoffman is adviser to a "Citizens for Eisenhower" committee.

Sen. McMahon, Connecticut Democrat, said he expects approval Monday, by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of his motion inviting Eisenhower to come home and testify on the New Foreign Aid Bill.

Other committeemen, including Sen. Lodge (R-Mass.), manager of the Eisenhower campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, and Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), said they would oppose McMahon's motion.

"I would not do anything to embarrass the general politically or in his NATO command," Sparkman said.

Lodge had a different reason. He said Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, deputy and chief of staff to Eisenhower, could supply any and all answers for Congress on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization program and foreign aid.

Gov. Earl C. Warren of California, campaigning in Wisconsin, said he did not believe "that we should start a war so that Chiang Kai-shek can conquer China—no other country would support that war but the United States."

12 Reds Die In Kojie Riot

New POW Outbreak Is Quelled By UN

TOKYO, March 15 — (AP) — A second bloody riot in less than a month at the UN Command's crowded Kojie Island prison camp brought death to 12 North Korean war prisoners and left 26 other prisoners wounded Thursday.

The Army announced one American officer and a South Korean were injured. But the Army did not say whether the wounded prisoners were North Koreans or Chinese.

The riot broke out when diehard Communist prisoners in a separate compound began stoning a work party of cooperative prisoners and a detachment of South Korean troops. The general headquarters announcement said the South Korean guards opened fire.

The Army said the riot was broken up and "all prisoners are complying fully with the orders of the authorities."

The International Red Cross has been asked to investigate the incident and the UN Command is making its own inquiry.

Seventy-five Korean civilian internees and a soldier of the U. S. 27th Infantry Regiment died in a Communist-led riot at Kojie Feb. 18. Twenty-two American soldiers and 129 internees were wounded.

Red truce negotiators at Panmunjom made propaganda capital of the first Kojie riot and Allied spokesmen predict more bitter attacks from the Communists as the result of Thursday's outbreak.

Kojie Island lies about 27 miles off Korea's southeast coast. It is 25 miles long and 15 miles wide. On the island the Allies have constructed 29 wire-enclosed compounds in which approximately 132,000 military prisoners and 54,000 civilian internees are imprisoned.

Bones Rattling Alongside Corpse

NEW YORK, March 15 — (AP) — With a solemnity not due to the surroundings, a police confidential squad slipped quietly into an upper East Side funeral chapel Friday night and arrested 36 men.

Thirty-five of them were playing dice alongside a candle-decked casket altar. The other was the owner, Anthony Piragnoli, 63, who, police said, got $25 a night for use of his chapel for gambling.

SEVEN GENTRY brothers from Sedalia, Mo., have served with the U. S. Marines, and three have lost legs. One of them is Pfc. Charles W. Gentry, shown being offered a light by Nurse Barbara Tazer at the Oak Knoll Navy Hospital in Oakland, Calif. He lost a leg in Korea. Frostbite at Chosin Reservoir cost the limb of one brother and the third lost both legs at Guadalcanal. "Us Gentrys like the Marines," said Charles, "they're a good outfit—those Leathernecks."

NOT LONG-SOUGHT CURE

Radio-Active Gold Said Aide In Cancer Battle

COLUMBUS, March 15 — (AP) — Radioactive gold may become an important new weapon in the treatment of cancer.

Dr. William G. Myers, an Ohio State University researcher, who pioneered in the use of radioactive cobalt as a cancer weapon, said radioactive gold appears to have several advantages over radon, radium or cobalt 60 in treating some forms of cancer.

For one thing, the gold in the form of "seeds," loses half of its radioactivity in only 2.7 days, and less than 10 per cent of its original radioactivity remains after the ninth day.

The seeds are made of fine, radioactive wire encased in thin gold tubing. They are inserted into cancerous tissue and left there permanently. The radiation danger passes quickly.

Dr. Myers said radon, a radioactive gas, formerly was the only material useable for permanent insertion. But it is more dangerous, and since cobalt retains its radioactivity for a long time, it can't be inserted permanently.

SO FAR, gold seeds have not been used on humans with cancer but only on laboratory mice. But Dr. Myers said the seeds may be used on humans with advanced cancer by mid-summer.

Another feature of radio-gold is that it is relatively inexpensive, Dr. Myers said. Other features are that it can be quickly adjusted to any strength by using either different length seeds or thicker wires, and it has greater flexibility because less shielding against unwanted beta particles is necessary.

Dr. Myers said he will seek the approval of the subcommittee on human application of the Atomic Energy Commission before using the radioactive gold on humans.

He emphasized that radioactive gold is not the long-sought cancer cure. But it is an advance in the application of the fruits of the atomic age in the radiation therapy of cancer, he said.

5-Foot Snows Hit Eastern California

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15 — (AP) — Rotary snowplows churned through five-foot snow blads Saturday to free two bus loads of stranded Marines, enroute to Camp Pendleton from their Pickle Meadows winter training camp in Eastern California.

Four other buses of Marines were bogged down by the 14-hour snow storm, but later reached towns. Marines in the buses, which normally carry 30 men, were reported to be equipped with Arctic gear.

The state division of highways at Bishop said the buses were stuck somewhere in a 23-mile stretch between Bridgeport and Sonora on U. S. Highway 395.

The unseasonable storm belted Northern California and mountain areas Friday and drove into the southern part of the state Saturday.

It was fair and cold weather over most of the rest of the country. Light snow fell in the Missouri Valley and in parts of Maine and New York. Light rain hit Northern Arkansas and Western Tennessee and Kentucky.

Southern Texas, Florida and the Gulf Coast escaped the chilly March weather. Temperatures were around zero again Saturday in the snow-covered areas of Montana, the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

3 Out Of 5 Allied Plans Given Nod

Communists Study Other Two Issues, Blast Kojie Riots

MUNSAN, March 15 — (AP) — UN negotiators Saturday offered the Communists a compromise "package deal" to settle five secondary issues blocking agreement on how to police a Korean armistice.

Allied staff officers working on truce supervision offered conditionally to accept the Red proposal to inspect only five ports of entry during an armistice and to yield on two other points if the Communists gave in on two issues. The UN has wanted six ports inspected on each side.

The Reds immediately accepted the three UN concessions, and indicated they weren't interested in talking about the other two points. However, North Korean Col. Chang Chun-sang showed enough interest to ask whether the UN "package" was a formal proposal.

Col. Andrew J. Kinney said it was not, but that if the Reds would accept it, he could have an answer from UN negotiators within 10 minutes.

THE "PACKAGE" deal provided that the UN would accept the Red proposal on ports of entry and drop demands for reports on the location of major military units and a guarantee that each side refrain from concentrating troops to threaten the other side during a truce.

In return, the Reds would have to agree to ban the inspection of secret weapons and to include the word "Korea" in armistice clauses prohibiting naval blockades during an armistice.

The Communists want the word "Korea" dropped, but the UN Command fears this might prohibit a possible naval blockade of the China coast. There has been unofficial talk of using the threat of a blockade to help enforce a truce.

In an adjoining text Communist negotiators savagely accused the Allies of "illegally" killing prisoners of war in a bloody riot Thursday at the UN Command's Kojie Island prison.

UN spokesmen predicted the Reds would seize on the incident and use it for an all-out attack on Allied demands that war prisoners be given the right to choose whether they are to be repatriated. The Communists want all prisoners returned, regardless of their wishes.

"We'll undoubtedly be hearing more later," Rear Adm. R. E. Libby told newsmen after advising the Communists of the latest Kojie riot in which 12 Communists were killed and 26 injured.

THE REDS branded the riot a "sanguinary incident" and reserved the right to speak out later on the matter. They indicated a strong protest would be forthcoming.

Before the 21-minute session ended the Reds accepted a UN proposal to turn the deadlocked prisoner exchange negotiations back to staff officers.

Two colonels representing each side will meet Sunday for a second attempt to reach agreement on the thorny issue of voluntary repatriation.

Romanian Fliers Flee Red Nation

FELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 15 — (AP) — Five Romanian army fliers, who fled their Communist homeland in a rickety World War I plane, reported here Friday night that an anti-Red underground exists in their Soviet satellite state.

Some cells of the resistance movement in Romania have several hundred members, they told newsmen. They said hunger and suffering are rampant in Romania and the country is clamped under tight Russian control.

Niemoller Says Naziism Reviving

LOS ANGELES, March 15 — (AP) — A German pastor who defied Hitler says Naziism has come back to life in Germany and is about as strong as Communism, each with a three per cent following.

Dr. Martin Niemoller told reporters Friday the German people do not see something for which to live and fight and perhaps die, so are going back to something in the past. He said Naziism's revival is a product of despair and despondency.

12 Reds Die In Kojie Riot

New POW Outbreak Is Quelled By UN

TOKYO, March 15 — (AP)—A second bloody riot in less than a month at the UN Command's crowded Kojie Island prison camp brought death to 12 North Korean war prisoners and left 26 other prisoners wounded Thursday.

The Army announced one American officer and a South Korean were injured. But the Army did not say whether the wounded prisoners were North Koreans or Chinese.

The riot broke out when diehard Communist prisoners in a separate compound began stoning a work party of cooperative prisoners and a detachment of South Korean troops. The general headquarters announcement said the South Korean guards opened fire.

Seventy-five Korean civilian internees and a soldier of the U. S. 27th Infantry Regiment died in a Communist-led riot at Kojie Feb. 18. Twenty-two American soldiers and 129 internees were wounded.

Red truce negotiators at Panmunjom made propaganda capital of the first Kojie riot and Allied spokesmen predict more bitter attacks from the Communists as the result of Thursday's outbreak.

Kojie Island lies about 27 miles off Korea's southeast coast. It is 25 miles long and 15 miles wide. On the island the Allies have constructed 29 wire-enclosed compounds in which approximately 132,000 military prisoners and 54,000 civilian internees are imprisoned.

Air Combat Score; 15-1, Favor Of UN

SEOUL, March 15 — (AP)—American Sabrejets destroyed at least 15 Russian-built Mig-15 jets this week with the loss of only one swept-wing fighter in air combat.

The Fifth Air Force said seven United Nations planes were lost during the week to ground fire and other causes.

In its regular weekly summary the Fifth Air Force said 15 Migs were destroyed, one probably destroyed and ten damaged. It said one American Sabrejet was lost in air combat, four Allied planes lost to Red ground fire, and three lost from unknown causes, possibly mechanical failure. Some of the UN pilots were picked up and returned to Allied lines.

Overcast and scattered clouds blanketed most of North Korea Saturday. UN planes concentrated on the Red front lines.

Four ground-hugging F-80 Shooting Stars roared out of the mist in a deadly surprise attack on a Communist mortar platoon on the eastern front. Pilots said they killed 50 soldiers and knocked out 12 gun positions.

Friday, the Communists hurled almost 500 rounds of high explosives into UN positions in the east. Red infantry probed Allied lines on both sides of the Korean peninsula. UN troops hurried them back after short, bitter fights.

Bones Rattling Alongside Corpse

NEW YORK, March 15 — (AP)—With a solemnity not due to the surroundings, a police confidential squad slipped quietly into an upper East Side funeral chapel Friday night and arrested 36 men.

Thirty-five of them were playing dice alongside a candle-decked casket altar. The other was the owner, Anthony Piragnoli, 63, who, police said, got $25 a night for use of his chapel for gambling.

SEVEN GENTRY brothers from Sedalia, Mo., have served with the U. S. Marines, and three have lost legs. One of them is Pfc. Charles W. Gentry, shown being offered a light by Nurse Barbara Tazer at the Oak Knoll Navy Hospital in Oakland, Calif. He lost a leg in Korea. Frothing at Chasin Reservoir cost the limb of one brother and the third lost both legs at Guadalcanal. "Us Gentrys like the Marines," said Charles, "they're a good outfit—those Leathernecks."

NOT LONG-FOUGHT CURE

Radio-Active Gold Said Aide In Cancer Battle

COLUMBUS, March 15 — (AP)—Radioactive gold may become an important new weapon in the treatment of cancer.

Dr. William G. Myers, an Ohio State University researcher, who pioneered in the use of radioactive cobalt as a cancer weapon, said radioactive gold appears to have several advantages over radon, radium or cobalt 60 in treating some forms of cancer.

For one thing, the gold in the form of "seeds," loses half of its radioactivity in only 27 days, and less than 10 per cent of its original radioactivity remains after the ninth day.

The seeds are made of fine, radioactive wire encased in thin gold tubing. They are inserted into cancerous tissue and left there permanently. The radiation danger passes quickly.

Dr. Myers said radon, a radioactive gas, formerly was the only material useable for permanent insertion. But it is more dangerous, and since cobalt retains its radioactivity for a long time, it can't be inserted permanently.

SO FAR, gold seeds have not been used on humans with cancer but only on laboratory mice. But Dr. Myers said the seeds may be used on humans with advanced cancer by mid-summer.

Another feature of radio-gold is that it is relatively inexpensive, Dr. Myers said. Other features are that it can be quickly adjusted to any strength by using either different length seeds or thicker wires, and it has greater flexibility because of its small size.

5-Foot Snows Hit Eastern California

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15 — (AP)—Rotary snowplows churned through five-foot snow depths Saturday to free two bus loads of stranded Marines, enroute to Camp Pendleton from their Pickle Meadow winter training camp in Eastern California.

Four other buses of Marines were bogged down by the 14-hour snow storm, but later reached towns. Marines in the buses, which normally carry 30 men, were reported to be equipped with Arctic gear.

The state division of highways at Bishop said the buses were stuck somewhere in a 23-mile stretch between Bridgeport and Sonora on U. S. Highway 395.

The unseasonable storm belted Northern California and mountain areas Friday and drove into the southern part of the state Saturday.

It was fair and cold weather over most of the rest of the country. Light snow fell in the Missouri Valley and in parts of Maine and New York. Light rain hit Northern Arkansas and Western Tennessee and Kentucky.

Southern Texas, Florida and the Gulf Coast escaped the chilly March weather. Temperatures were around zero again Saturday in the snow-covered areas of Montana, the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

3 Out Of 5 Allied Plans Given Nod

Communists Study Other Two Issues, Blast Kojie Riots

MUNSAN, March 15 — (AP)—UN negotiators Saturday offered the Communists a compromise "package deal" to settle five secondary issues blocking agreement on how to police a Korean armistice.

Allied staff officers working on truce supervision offered conditionally to accept the Red proposal to inspect only five ports of entry during an armistice and to yield on two other points if the Communists gave in on two issues. The UN has wanted six ports inspected on each side.

The Reds immediately accepted the three UN concessions, and indicated they weren't interested in talking about the other two points. However, North Korean Col. Chang Chun-sang showed enough interest to ask whether the UN "package" was a formal proposal.

Col. Andrew J. Kinney said it was not, but that if the Reds would accept it, he could have an answer from UN negotiators within 10 minutes.

THE "PACKAGE deal" provided that the UN would accept the Red proposal on ports of entry and drop demands for reports on the location of major military units and a guarantee that each side refrain from concentrating troops to threaten the other side during a truce.

In return, the Reds would have to agree to ban the inspection of secret weapons and to include the word "Korea" in armistice clauses forbidding naval blockades during an armistice.

The Communists wanted the word "Korea" dropped, but the UN Command fears this might prohibit a possible naval blockade of the China coast. There has been unofficial talk of using the threat of a blockade to help enforce a truce.

In an adjoining tent Communist negotiators savagely accused the Allies of "illegally" killing prisoners of war in a bloody riot Thursday at the UN Command's Kojie Island prison.

UN spokesmen predicted the Reds would seize on the incident and use it for an all-out attack on Allied demands that war prisoners be given the right to choose whether they are to be repatriated. The Communists want all prisoners returned, regardless of their wishes.

"We'll undoubtedly be hearing more later," Rear Adm. R. E. Libby told newsmen after advising the Communists of the latest Kojie riot in which 12 Communists were killed and 26 injured.

THE REDS branded the riot a "sanguinary incident" and reserved the right to speak out later on the matter. They indicated a strong protest would be forthcoming.

Before the 21-minute session ended the Reds accepted a UN proposal to turn the deadlocked prisoner exchange negotiations back to staff officers.

Two colonels representing each side will meet Sunday for a second attempt to reach agreement on the thorny issue of voluntary repatriation.

Romanian Fliers Flee Red Nation

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, March 15 — (AP)—Five Romanian army fliers, who fled their Communist homeland in a rickety World War I plane, reported here Friday night that an anti-Red underground exists in their Soviet satellite state.

Some cells of the resistance movement in Romania have several hundred members, they told newsmen. They said hunger and suffering are rampant in Romania and the country is clamped under tight Russian control.

Niemoeiler Says Naziism Reviving

LOS ANGELES, March 15 — (AP)—A German pastor who defied Hitler says Naziism has come back to life in Germany and is about as strong as Communism, each with a three per cent following.

Dr. Martin Niemoeiler told reporters Friday the German people do not see something for which to live and fight and perhaps die, so are going back to something in the past. He said Naziism's revival is a product of despair and despondency.

That Tax Return Is Due Monday

WASHINGTON, March 15 — (AP)—Take up a fresh income tax form, more pencils and another row of figures—you've got until midnight Monday to file that return.

March 15 is the deadline, of course. But since it's a Saturday, the law says the deadline automatically moves back to midnight Monday—March 17.

make certain anthrax is not communicated to cows.

HE SAID Cincinnati has about 200 milk shippers in the Clinton County area. Wilzbach said pasteurization of milk kills germs, including anthrax.

Dr. John D. Porterfield, state health director, said there was no reason for people to quit buying pork. Porterfield said there was no danger in consumption of government-inspected pork, but warned against buying from small slaughter establishments where meat is not inspected.

Anthrax cases also have been reported in Illinois, Indiana and Missouri.

Federal officials can take over investigations if Ohio gets definite proof anthrax disease germs come from imported bone meal. Until then, federal agents will have to sit tight.

State Agriculture Department inspectors were to work Saturday and Sunday in Ohio's drive to stop the spread of anthrax in the state, Agriculture Director Howard S. Foust said.

Ten inspectors—six of them recruited from the department's seed and fertilizer division—started out in teams of two Friday to inspect processing plants and elevators which mix swine feed.

They were transported by the State Highway Patrol. Samples they obtained were returned immediately by the patrol to Columbus for examination in one of five laboratories—two belonging to the U. S. Food and Drug Department, two of the Ohio Health Department and one at Ohio State University veterinary college.

Foust said: "These inspectors have agreed to give up their Saturdays and Sundays and work in an effort to get at the bottom of this problem."

War Vets May File Claim For Dental Care

Veterans of World War I and World War II are again reminded that if they were given dental treatment while in the service they are entitled to dental treatment from the dentist of their choice at Veterans Administration expense.

If the veteran needs fillings, extractions, upper or lower plates, partial plates or any other dental treatment, it can be allowed if he can prove that he had dental treatment while in the service on the same teeth which need treatment now.

The only information needed to file the claim is the approximate date and place where the dental treatment was performed while in the service. It will be impossible for any veteran to give the exact date of dental treatment, so if he can give the date within a month or so of the exact month, records will be found, and the treatment will be allowed.

Veterans of the Korean conflict—any serviceman having service after June 27, 1950—may get an immediate dental exam by reporting to the closest VA office. All Korean veterans should have this dental exam within one year after their discharge. Service connection may be granted for any dental defects found within one year after discharge.

For further information, and for the filing of claims, contact James P. Shea, Veterans' service officer, in the basement of Pickaway Courthouse.

Maggs took over the job at the request of the late Mrs. F. W. B. Berger, wealthy owner of a wood-estate here who spent some $150 a month on meat for the felines. Mrs. Berger, a native American, asked that the cats be killed after her death because "no one will feed them after I'm gone."

Farmers Veto Truce Demand

DALLAS, March 15 — (P)—A resolution demanding an immediate cease-fire in Korea and the return of American troops from there was defeated at the closing session of the National Farmers Union convention Friday.

The convention adopted by voice vote a program for 1952-53 that calls for a world brotherhood of nations, federal aid to education, higher farm support prices, and a crackdown on monopolies. It opposes military training, taxation of cooperatives, the Taft-Hartley law and "McCarthyism."

Judge Softens Man's Sentence

CLEVELAND, March 15 — (P)—"He stole a girl's panties. But he still is virile, and I hate to think he is beyond redemption."

With that observation, Judge Samuel H. Silbert Friday softened Harvey Hawley's life sentence to a one-to-five-year hitch in the penitentiary. Hawley, who had proved his manhood by beating up his jailers, wept in gratitude. Hawley was convicted of stealing the panties from the apartment of Miss Olga Dey. He had spent most of the last 11 years behind bars, and was given the life sentence as a habitual offender.

Ohio Bell Union May Take Walk

CLEVELAND, March 15 — (P)—The CIO Communication Workers Union Saturday announced distribution of strike ballots to 14,000 employees of Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

A spokesman said the union wants strike sanction in the event its negotiations with Bell fail to produce a new contract. Results of the vote will not be known until next week, he said. The current contract expired last Feb. 15, but by mutual agreement was extended on a day-to-day basis.

Letter To The Editor

The Circleville Herald encourages letters to the editor on pertinent subjects of local interest. However, unsigned letters will be disregarded. Non-deadline letters will be used if requested.

DEAR FELLOW CITIZEN:

This is a progress report on the current drive for Red Cross funds. Our goal for the county has not yet been reached. Our committee has resolutely decided that we have a moral obligation to carry on this drive to a successful conclusion.

After three weeks' effort we have only attained 70 percent of the Pickaway County goal of $11,000, which is our share of the expenses of the American Red Cross at home and abroad.

Many individuals and business organizations have made generous contributions. For these expressions of belief in those things for which the American Red Cross stands, we are deeply appreciative.

Red Cross national figures indicate that even with a well organized, well planned drive probably only 70 percent of the possible donors in a given area are contacted. This of course is due to people not being at home at the time the calls are made and for various other reasons. We are inclined to think that there are many people in the county who have not been contacted and who may wish to make a donation.

If you wish to make an investment in humanity through the American Red Cross, or if you should like to make an additional investment, you can do one of three things. Call the solicitor for your area; mail your contribution to the American Red Cross office at 114 1/2 North Court street, Circleville; or phone 336 and a solicitor will call for it.

Your contribution, with that of others, will make the difference between success and failure of this drive for funds. Won't each of you give immediate consideration to this plea so that all of us in Pickaway County can feel that we have done our share in backing up our boys in the Armed Forces?

Births Exceed Deaths Here In February By 14

Births exceeded the number of deaths during February in Pickaway County by 14.

Reports from both city and county health offices show a total of 50 births during the months while only 36 deaths were recorded.

As usual, Circleville led in the number of births. Of the 50 births reported for the month, 38 were in Circleville and only 12 were in the county.

At the same time, number of girls born here during the month almost doubled the number of boy births for the period.

The report shows 33 girls were born in February while only 17 boys were born.

County deaths exceeded those which were recorded in Circleville. Of the 36 deaths, 20 were in the county while only 16 were in the city.

SEVEN of the county deaths, however, occurred in Orient state school.

Death was most frequent in the 71-80-year-old age range during February. A total of nine deaths were recorded in that range, while the 81-90 bracket was next high with six.

Complete age range of deaths during February is as follows: 1-10-years-old, two; 11-20-years-old, two; 21-30-years-old, two; 41-50-years-old, four; 51-60-years-old, five; 61-70-years-old, three; 71-80-years-old, nine; 81-90-years-old, six; and 91-100-years-old, three.

Cincinnati Eyes Milk From Areas

War Vets May File Claim For Dental Care

Veterans of World War I and World War II are again reminded that if they were given dental treatment while in the service they are entitled to dental treatment from the dentist of their choice at Veterans Administration expense.

If the veteran needs fillings, extractions, upper or lower plates, partial plates or any other dental treatment, it can be allowed if he can prove that he had dental treatment while in the service on the same teeth which need treatment now.

The only information needed to file the claim is the approximate date and place where the dental treatment was performed while in the service. It will be impossible for any veteran to give the exact date of dental treatment, so if he can give the date within a month or so of the exact month, records will be found, and the treatment will be allowed.

Veterans of the Korean conflict—any serviceman having service after June 27, 1950—may get an immediate dental exam by reporting to the closest VA office. All Korean veterans should have this dental exam within one year after their discharge. Service connection may be granted for any dental defects found within one year after discharge.

For further information, and for the filing of claims, contact James P. Shea, Veterans' service officer, in the basement of Pickaway Courthouse.

100 Stray Cats Ordered Killed

VICTORIA, B. C., March 15—(P)—"The toughest assignment" he ever had—the shooting of some 100 stray cats—was near the end Saturday for Inspector Ben Maggs of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Maggs took over the job at the request of the late Mrs. F. W. B. Berger, wealthy owner of a wood-estate here who spent some $150 a month on meat for the felines. Mrs. Berger, a native American, asked that the cats be killed after her death because "no one will feed them after I'm gone."

Farmers Veto Truce Demand

DALLAS, March 15—(P)—A resolution demanding an immediate cease-fire in Korea and the return of American troops from there was defeated at the closing session of the National Farmers Union convention Friday.

The convention adopted by voice vote a program for 1952-53 that calls for a world brotherhood of nations, federal aid to education, higher farm support prices, and a crackdown on monopolies. It opposes military training, taxation of co-operatives, the Taft-Hartley law and "McCarthyism."

6 Violators Fined $140 In City Court

Five traffic violators were fined a total of $140 and costs Friday in the court of Mayor Ed Amey.

Cuckler was arrested at Court and Main streets by Officers Rod List and Leroy Hawks.

The woman driver was arrested on North Court street by Officers Charles Smith and Hawks, while Hettinger was arrested on South Court street by Officers Smith, Hawks and Ed Hoffman.

AND A LOGAN, W. Va., pair was fined $10 and costs each for crossing yellow lines on Route 23.

Judge Softens Man's Sentence

CLEVELAND, March 15—(P)—"He stole a girl's panties. But he still is virile, and I hate to think he is beyond redemption."

With that observation, Judge Samuel H. Silbert Friday softened Harvey Hawley's life sentence to a one-to-five-year hitch in the penitentiary. Hawley, who had proved his manhood by beating up his jailers, wept in gratitude. Hawley was convicted of stealing the panties from the apartment of Miss Olga Dey. He had spent most of the last 11 years behind bars, and was given the life sentence as a habitual offender.

Ohio Bell Union May Take Walk

CLEVELAND, March 15—(P)—The CIO Communication Workers Union Saturday announced distribution of strike ballots to 14,000 employees of Ohio Bell Telephone Co.

A spokesman said the union wants strike sanction in the event its negotiations with Bell fail to produce a new contract. Results of the vote will not be known until next week, he said. The current contract expired last Feb. 15, but by mutual agreement was extended on a day-to-day basis.

Letter To The Editor

The Circleville Herald encourages letters to the editor on pertinent subjects of local interest. However, unsigned letters will be disregarded. Non de plume will be used if requested.

DEAR FELLOW CITIZEN:

This is a progress report on the current drive for Red Cross funds. Our goal for the county has not yet been reached. Our committee has resolutely decided that we have a moral obligation to carry on this drive to a successful conclusion.

After three weeks' effort we have only attained 70 percent of the Pickaway County goal of $11,000, which is our share of the expenses of the American Red Cross at home and abroad.

Many individuals and business organizations have made generous contributions. For these expressions of belief in those things for which the American Red Cross stands, we are deeply appreciative.

Red Cross national figures indicate that even with a well organized, well planned drive probably only 70 percent of the possible donors in a given area are contacted. This of course is due to people not being at home at the time the calls are made and for various other reasons. We are inclined to think that there are many people in the county who have not been contacted and who may wish to make a donation.

If you wish to make an investment in humanity through the American Red Cross, or if you should like to make an additional investment, you can do one of three things. Call the solicitor for your area; mail your contribution to the American Red Cross office at 114½ North Court street, Circleville; or phone 336 and a solicitor will call for it.

Your contribution, with that of others, will make the difference between success and failure of this drive for funds. Won't each of you give immediate consideration to this plea so that all of us in Pickaway County can feel that we have done our share in backing up our boys in the Armed Forces?

Timothy, a Dependable Follower

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Acts 16:1-3; I Corinthians 4:14-21; Philippians 2:19-24; I Timothy 4:10-16; II Timothy 2:1-3.

Paul went to Lystra and found there a disciple named Timothy, son of a Christian Jewish mother and a Greek father, whom he chose to accompany him on his journeys.

Paul wrote to the Corinthians that he was sending Timothy, "his beloved son and faithful in the Lord," to bring to them the remembrance of his, Paul's, teaching.

Paul advised Timothy: "Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, . . . and 'meditate upon these things."

Paul wrote of his suffering for his faith "as an evil doer" and "even unto bonds," but "the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things."

MEMORY VERSE—I Timothy 2:15.

'Mercifulness' Topic Is Due In Calvary Church

"Christian Mercifulness" is the theme of morning worship service in Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church Sunday. This is the fifth in a series of Lenten sermons which the Rev. James A. Herbst is bringing from the Beatitudes of Christ as given in the Sermon on the Mount.

In his sermon, the Rev. Mr. Herbst will point out that even as we have received mercifulness from God in our own lives, so he expects us to show it likewise to our fellowmen.

Worship service will be opened with a piano prelude by Miss Minnie Wilkerson and call to worship and invocation by Dale DeLong. Morning scripture and prayer will be given by the pastor, following which Christian Caroler's Choir will sing an anthem.

Anthem which the choir has chosen to sing, under the direction of Mrs. Richard Crawford, is "Have Thine Own Way Lord." Following the message of the morning and the closing hymn the congregation will dismiss to their various classes in the Sunday school for the Bible study hour.

Children's department, under the direction of Mrs. DeLong, will have worship and Bible study at the same time as the adults, but as a separate unit. "Timothy, a Dependable Follower" is the lesson topic which will be studied in the Sunday school.

Following the morning worship service there will be a meeting of the council of administration in the church sanctuary.

Student Pastor Is To Tell Of Zacchaeus

"The Eagerness of Zacchaeus" is to be the sermon theme in Trinity Lutheran church for the third Sunday in Lent. The text is taken from the account of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem, found in St. Luke.

Student Pastor Fred MacLean says: "We find in Zacchaeus a man who was aware of his faults and was seeking salvation. His desire to see Jesus resulted in his being brought to Jesus' attention."

"When Jesus saw him and called him to serve, Zacchaeus responded eagerly, setting an example that is followed all too seldom."

Junior Choir will offer an anthem, "Day By Day," and will lead congregational singing of the hymns, "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus," "Everest In Spirit, Serving The Lord" and "The Church's One Foundation."

First Evangelical United Brethren church will sponsor a fourth Lenten crusade service at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Featuring the program is a 15-voice chorus from Lancaster Boys' Industrial School. Woodrow Carley, president of the Home Builder Class, will preside. Assisting will be Forest Schlegel, Miss Lucille Kirkwood, Mrs. Carl L. Wilson, and Edwin Richardson. This service is open to the public.

A delegation from First Evangelical United Brethren church will attend the Ohio Southeast Conference mid-year institute in Chillicothe Tyler Memorial church Thursday. Dr. H. W. Kaebnick, general church treasurer of Dayton, will be guest speaker. Superintendents Dr. C. M. Bowman and the Rev. E. E. Nietz will preside and present the current church emphases of evangelism and stewardship.

Mrs. Earnest May, president, will direct the program when Shining Light Class of First Evangelical United Brethren church meets in the service center at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. Mrs. Charles Camp, Mrs. Ralph Long and Mrs. Lena Disbennett are hostesses.

Wooster Glee Club Due Here Next Saturday

Details of the program which Men's Glee Club of Wooster College will present here March 22 under the auspices of the Men's Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church, were listed Saturday by Thomas Houghton, head of publicity committee.

From the rhythmic "De Camp-town Races," which opens the concert, to the lilting choruses from the Gilbert and Sullivan "Mikado," which serves as the finale, the program is designed for listening pleasure. Among folk songs and spirituals of the south which comprise the first of seven groups, the Wooster club will present "Down in the Valley."

Church music of the sixteenth century, sung without accompaniment and in Latin, provides the forty-five voice chorus with opportunity to display its technique.

The varsity double quartet, a group which dresses in full kilts of authentic tartan MacLeod, symbol of Wooster, will provide one of the high points of the evening as they sing songs of Scotland.

Miss Carol Grimm, junior voice major from Cincinnati, will sing Shakespeare songs by the British composer Roger Quilter; and John Williams Jr., also a junior in Wooster, will play violin works by Desplantes and Smetana.

The club, which last year made a 1,700-mile trip through the south and which has sung extensively in the eastern states, will come here after five days spent in the Chicago area. The appearance of this group in the Presbyterian church is open to the public and is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. next Saturday.

Lutheran Men Debunk Popular Misconceptions

First meeting of Trinity Lutheran church Brotherhood was held Thursday night.

During the business meeting, the organization voted to send President Richard Penn as its delegate to the Ohio District Brotherhood convention in April.

Program was presented by Team Two, headed by Bob Brehmer and Karl Herrmann. The theme might well have been titled, "Debunking Popular Misconceptions." The subject matter ranged from milk snakes to flying saucers.

In a more serious vein, Charles Walters explained the workings of a weather observation balloon. Brehmer offered pointers on proper preparation of lawns during the Spring, and Karl Herrmann gave a brief report on the work being done by the juvenile authorities in Pickaway County.

Lenten Service Is Readied For Presbyterians

"The Challenge Of The Soul" is the theme of a Lenten sermon which the Rev. Donald Mitchell will preach Sunday during worship service in Presbyterian church.

"But The Lord Is Mindful," will be sung as an anthem by the choir, directed by Mrs. Clark Will. Mrs. Theodore L. Huston will play "Theme from Concerto, Opus 18," "To Spring" and "Maestoso."

The congregation will sing the hymns "Praise The Lord," "Christ Of The Upward Way" and "In The Cross Of Christ I Glory."

At 5 p. m. the area building fund campaign committee will meet in the session room with representatives from Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian church, Kingston, Whistler, Tarlton and Circleville churches.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell is chairman. At 6:30 p. m. the pastor will lead in a Lenten instruction class in the study and discussion of the meaning and purpose of church membership. Westminster Fellowship will meet at 7:30 p. m. in the chapel for devotional service in the social rooms.

Judge Radcliff To Tell Legends Of St. Patrick

Judge William D. Radcliff will be guest speaker when Presbyterian Men's Brotherhood meets Wednesday night.

Judge Radcliff will talk on St. Patrick and the history and legends surrounding his name. The judge states that in the case of the patron saint of Ireland, history and legend have become so interwoven that it is difficult to distinguish the facts.

Many scholars, for instance, find reason to believe that Patrick himself was not born in Ireland. The judge is expected to bring many other interesting sidelights on the story of St. Patrick and the celebration of the day that bears his name.

Meeting of the Men's Brotherhood will begin at 7:30 p. m. and the featured talk will be followed with refreshments.

Household Hints

Coconut snowballs are delicious served with canned pineapple slices. To make the snowballs bake white cake batter in small cupcake pans; when cool dip the cupcakes in white frosting and roll in coconut.

Next time you make meringues to serve with ice cream dice marshmallow cherries very fine and add them to the meringue mixture before baking. You'll need about twelve cherries for a recipe that calls for three egg whites.

Special Prayer Is Offered For 'One Great Hour'

Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S. and presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church, has written the following prayer for world refugees which will be read in churches of 20 Protestant denominations all over America this Sunday in connection with the opening of their "One Great Hour of Sharing" united appeal for overseas relief and reconstruction.

"Almighty God, whose compassions fail not and whose loving kindness reacheth unto the world's end: we ask that thy blessing may rest upon the millions of our brethren in other lands who through no fault of their own, are in dire need. Grant them the help and comfort of thy Presence, the simple gifts of food, clothing and shelter, the greater gifts of freedom and of opportunity.

"We thank thee for all thy goodness to us as a nation and as a people. Help us to use these blessings in the service of others. Touch our hearts that we may gladly share with those in want to the glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ."

Special offerings will be taken in the co-operating thousands of churches on March 23 in an attempt of the denominations to raise more than $6 million for the continuance of their humanitarian work among the distressed of Korea, the Middle East, India and Central Europe.

Lenten Series To Be Continued In First EUB

Continuing a Lenten sermon series upon "The Cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ," the Rev. Carl L. Wilson Sunday will discuss "The Word of the Cross," in the 9:30 a. m. unified worship service in First Evangelical United Brethren church.

Miss Pat Nau will open the service with the prelude, "An Easter Flower," after which Fidelis Chorus will sing a processional hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

Church School Superintendent Edwin Richardson is to assist the pastor in call to worship and a reaffirmation of faith in praise, doctrine and prayer.

In keeping with the sermon theme, the congregation will sing "At the Cross."

Fidelis Chorus, under the direction of Clarence Radcliffe, will sing an anthem, "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah."

From I Corinthians 1:17 and 18, the Rev. Wilson says: "The word or message of the cross may not be heard from any single text of scripture."

"To receive its message in all the fullness of its significance, one must hear the whole word of God concerning it. The great message of the cross is much misunderstood, because of the fragmentary fashion in which it is often presented. But no matter how fully the gospel of the cross may be preached it will still be to them that are perishing foolishness. This truth is most searching. It is a definite sign that one is perishing if he does not see the infinite wisdom and power of God in the cross of Christ. The word of the cross is God's word about the cross, and His message of love and grace to man through the cross. The word of the cross is four fold, because it speaks concerning holiness and sin; love and sacrifice; righteousness and peace and salvation and power. Man needs to flee to the cross of Christ, and there take refuge in the power of God."

Church school studies the international uniform lesson, "Timothy, a Dependable Follower." Classes are engaged in attendance campaigns with emphases upon regular Sunday attendance in worship and class sessions.

Timothy, a Dependable Follower

Scripture—Acts 16:1-3; I Corinthians 4:14-21; Philippians 2:19-24; I Timothy 4:10-16; II Timothy 2:1-3.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Paul went to Lystra and found there a disciple named Timothy, son of a Christian Jewish mother and a Greek father, whom he chose to accompany him on his journeys.

Paul wrote to the Corinthians that he was sending Timothy, "his beloved son and faithful in the Lord," to bring to them the remembrance of his, Paul's, teaching.

Paul advised Timothy: "Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee," . . . and "meditate upon these things."

Paul wrote of his suffering for his faith "as an evil doer" and "even unto bonds," but "the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things." MEMORY VERSE—I Timothy 2:15.

'Mercifulness' Topic Is Due In Calvary Church

"Christian Mercifulness" is the theme of morning worship service in Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church Sunday. This is the fifth in a series of Lenten sermons which the Rev. James A. Herbst is bringing from the Beatitudes of Christ as given in the Sermon on the Mount.

In his sermon, the Rev. Mr. Herbst will point out that even as we have received mercifulness from God in our own lives, so he expects us to show it likewise to our fellowmen.

Worship service will be opened with a piano prelude by Miss Minnie Wilkerson and call to worship and invocation by Dale DeLong. Morning scripture and prayer will be given by the pastor, following which Christian Caroler's Choir will sing an anthem.

Anthem which the choir has chosen to sing, under the direction of Mrs. Richard Crawford, is "Have Thine Own Way Lord." Following the message of the morning and the closing hymn the congregation will dismiss to their various classes in the Sunday school for the Bible study hour.

Children's department, under the direction of Mrs. DeLong, will have worship and Bible study at the same time as the adults, but as a separate unit. "Timothy, a Dependable Follower" is the lesson topic which will be studied in the Sunday school.

Following the morning worship service there will be a meeting of the council of administration in the church sanctuary.

Student Pastor Is To Tell Of Zacchaeus

"The Eagerness of Zacchaeus" will be the sermon theme in Trinity Lutheran church for the third Sunday in Lent. The text is taken from the account of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem, found in St. Luke.

Student Pastor Fred MacLean says: "We find in Zacchaeus a man who was aware of his faults and was seeking salvation. His desire to see Jesus resulted in his being brought to Jesus' attention."

"When Jesus saw him and called him to serve, Zacchaeus responded eagerly, setting an example that is followed all too seldom."

Junior Choir will offer an anthem, "Day By Day," and will lead congregational singing of the hymns, "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus," "Everent In Spirit, Serving The Lord" and "The Church's One Foundation."

Calvary EUB church will practice at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Midweek Lenten service of Calvary EUB church will be held at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. The WSW will direct the devotional period. Bible study will be of the two disciples, Thomas and Matthew.

Wooster Glee Club Due Here Next Saturday

Details of the program which Men's Glee Club of Wooster College will present here March 22 under the auspices of the Men's Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church were listed Saturday by Thomas Houghton, head of publicity committee.

From the rhythmic "De Camp-town Races," which opens the concert, to the lilting choruses from the Gilbert and Sullivan "Mikado," which serves as the finale, the program is designed for listening pleasure. Among folk songs and spirituals of the south which comprise the first of seven groups, the Wooster club will present "Down in the Valley."

Church music of the sixteenth century, sung without accompaniment and in Latin, provides the forty-five voice chorus with opportunity to display its technique.

The varsity double quartet, a group which dresses in full kilts of authentic tartan MacLeod, symbol of Wooster, will provide one of the high points of the evening as they sing songs of Scotland.

Miss Carol Grimm, junior voice major from Cincinnati, will sing Shakespeare songs by the British composer Roger Quilter; and John Williams Jr., also a junior in Wooster, will play violin works by Des-pianes and Smetana.

The club, which last year made a 1,700-mile trip through the south and which has sung extensively in the eastern states, will come here after five days spent in the Chicago area. The appearance of this group in the Presbyterian Church is open to the public and is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. next Saturday.

Lutheran Men Debunk Popular Misconceptions

First meeting of Trinity Lutheran church Brotherhood was held Thursday night.

During the business meeting, the organization voted to send President Richard Penn as its delegate to the Ohio District Brotherhood convention in April.

Program was presented by Team Two, headed by Bob Brehmer and Karl Herrmann. The theme might well have been titled, "Debunking Popular Misconceptions." The subject matter ranged from milk snakes to flying saucers.

In a more serious vein, Charles Walters explained the workings of a weather observation balloon. Brehmer offered pointers on proper preparation of lawns during the Spring, and Karl Herrmann gave a brief report on the work being done by the juvenile authorities in Pickaway County.

Lenten Service Is Readied For Presbyterians

"The Challenge Of The Soul" is the theme of a Lenten sermon which the Rev. Donald Mitchell will preach Sunday during worship service in Presbyterian church.

"But The Lord Is Mindful," will be sung as an anthem by the choir, directed by Mrs. Clark Will. Mrs. Theodore L. Huston will play "Theme from Concerto, Opus 18," "To Spring" and "Maestoso."

The congregation will sing the hymns "Praise The Lord," "Christ Of The Upward Way" and "In The Cross Of Christ I Glory."

At 5 p. m. the area building fund campaign committee will meet in the session room with representatives from Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian church, Kingston, Whistler, Tarlton and Circleville churches. The Rev. Mr. Mitchell is chairman.

At 6:30 p. m. the pastor will lead in a Lenten instruction class in the study and discussion of the meaning and purpose of church membership. Westminster Fellowship will meet at 7:30 p. m. in the chapel for devotional service in the social rooms.

Judge Radcliff To Tell Legends Of St. Patrick

Judge William D. Radcliff will be guest speaker when Presbyterian Men's Brotherhood meets Wednesday night.

Judge Radcliff will talk on St. Patrick and the history and legends surrounding his name. The judge states that in the case of the patron saint of Ireland, history and legend have become so interwoven that it is difficult to distinguish the facts.

Many scholars, for instance, find reason to believe that Patrick himself was not born in Ireland. The judge is expected to bring many other interesting sidelights on the story of St. Patrick and the celebration of the day that bears his name.

Meeting of the Men's Brotherhood will begin at 7:30 p. m. and the featured talk will be followed with refreshments.

Household Hints

Coconut snowballs are delicious served with canned pineapple slices. To make the snowballs bake white cake batter in small cupcake pans; when cool dip the cupcakes in white frosting and roll in coconut.

Next time you make meringues to serve with ice cream dice marsh-mallows very fine and add them to the meringue mixture before baking. You'll need about twelve cherries for a recipe that calls for three egg whites.

Special Prayer Is Offered For 'One Great Hour'

Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S. and presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church, has written the following prayer for world refugees which will be read in churches of 20 Protestant denominations all over America this Sunday in connection with the opening of their "One Great Hour of Sharing" united appeal for overseas relief and reconstruction.

"Almighty God, whose compassions fail not and whose loving kindness reacheth unto the world's end: we ask that thy blessing may rest upon the millions of our brethren in other lands who through no fault of their own, are in dire need. Grant them the help and comfort of thy Presence, the simple gifts of food, clothing and shelter, the greater gifts of freedom and of opportunity.

"We thank thee for all thy goodness to us as a nation and as a people. Help us to use these blessings in the service of others. Touch our hearts that we may gladly share with those in want to the glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ."

Special offerings will be taken in the co-operating thousands of churches on March 23 in an attempt of the denominations to raise more than $6 million for the continuance of their humanitarian work among the distressed of Korea, the Middle East, India and Central Europe.

Lenten Series To Be Continued In First EUB

Continuing a Lenten sermon series upon "The Cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ," the Rev. Carl L. Wilson Sunday will discuss "The Word of the Cross," in the 9:30 a. m. unified worship service in First Evangelical United Brethren church.

Miss Pat Nau will open the service with the prelude, "An Easter Flower," after which Fidelis Chorus will sing a processional hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

Church School Superintendent Edwin Richardson is to assist the pastor in call to worship and a reaffirmation of faith in praise, doctrine and prayer.

In keeping with the sermon theme, the congregation will sing "At the Cross."

Fidelis Chorus, under the direction of Clarence Radcliffe, will sing an anthem, "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah."

From I Corinthians 1:17 and 18, the Rev. Wilson says: "The word or message of the cross may not be heard from any single text of scripture."

"To receive its message in all the fullness of its significance, one must hear the whole word of God concerning it. The great message of the cross is much misunderstood, because of the fragmentary fashion in which it is often presented. But no matter how fully the gospel of the cross may be preached it will still be to them that are perishing foolishness. This truth is most searching. Mrs. Allen Is Speaker For Association Meeting

Tea Is Served Following Talk

"Ten nights in a bed roll," might well be the title of Mrs. Frederick Allen's talk given to members of the Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church, Friday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. Allen, wife of the assistant pastor of the Broad Street Presbyterian church, Columbus, related incidents from her trip to the missions of the southwest. Her at times humorous and other times, deeply serious descriptions of the traveling adult seminary which she attended last summer with 50 other Presbyterians, was very interesting.

Her trip began with a flight from Columbus to Albuquerque, New Mexico. The speed of travel was abruptly reduced to an "accommodation train" to Las Vegas, New Mexico. All of the other passengers were of Spanish and Indian lineage. The trip to mission stations was undertaken over bumpy desert roads in cars.

Trucks carried provisions, suit cases and bed rolls. Meals were taken chuck-wagon style, eaten from tin plates on planks or on the ground. Nights were spent sleeping in bed rolls on the sand, watching the beautiful desert skies, even as most of the missionaries now spend their nights on the circuit from house to house.

Mrs. Allen had high praise for the friendliness of the west and wonderful Granada Missions, one of the largest Presbyterian missions in the west. She spoke of its history and gave amusing incidents of the need and scramble for baths when reaching there after their dusty trail.

Visits to Santa Fe, the Grand Canyon, Kayenta, a little mission, Chimayo and the cowboy roundups were described.

Mrs. Allen paid tribute to the hard working missionaries and their individual struggles toward achievement.

Mrs. J. B. Stevenson introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Oscar Root, president of the organization, was in charge of the brief business meeting.

Mrs. Clifford Watson conducted the devotional service.

Miss Ann Downing played two piano solos by Bach.

Mrs. Charles May, chairman and Mrs. Sewell Dunton, co-chairman of Group C and Mrs. C. E. Davis and Mrs. Clifford Watson, of Group D were in charge of the tea which followed.

Mrs. Donald Mitchell presided at the silver service and the table was centered with an arrangement of fern and white carnations. The St. Patrick's day theme was carried throughout.

Ashville

Rodney Harris of the Ashville seventh grade has been removed to University hospital, Columbus, where he is receiving treatment for an appendicitis attack.

Ted Dennis visited Thursday evening with his brother, Carl Dennis, and family in Columbus.

Mrs. Robert Wellington of Ashville Route 2 is confined in her home with an attack of the flu.

Mrs. Ruby Carter and Jack Carter of Columbus visited Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Thompson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rhodes of Circleville visited Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Metz and family.

Mrs. Ida Cook is visiting her son Frank Cook and family in Georgia.

Mrs. H. L. Gregg entered Mercy hospital Friday, where she expects to undergo surgery.

Andy Duvall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Duvall Jr., celebrated his 10th birthday anniversary Thursday with a family party attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McVey of Columbus; Mrs. C. B. Teegardin, Clinton, Tim, Carol, and Paul Teegardin, and his brother Tom.

Jack Bott, principal of the Duvall school, has been ill with the flu and pleurisy the past week and has been unable to meet with his classes.

Slices of French bread are delicious when spread with butter or margarine, sprinkled with grated yellow cheese, and heated in the oven. Serve with a main-dish salad for luncheon.

Prepare a pretty dressing to accompany a fruit salad: Whip three tablespoons of currant jelly with a fork and then mix gently but thoroughly with a half cup of commercially prepared sour cream. This dressing tastes good on a winter salad of bananas, apples, and oranges.

PARTY PUFFS

By BETTY NEWTON

For your next party try serving these tasty cream puff shells filled with a rich chocolate cream filling. They'll be a hit with your guests —also with you, for they are a joy to make.

Cream Puff Shells

- 2 Tbsp. sugar
- 1 C. sifted flour
- 1/2 C. butter or margarine
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 C. boiling water
- 4 eggs, beaten

Sift sugar into flour. Add butter or margarine and salt to boiling water and stir over medium flame until mixture boils. Turn flame to simmer, add flour mixture all at once and stir vigorously until mixture leaves sides of pan and has tendency to form a ball. A metal spoon pressed down lightly into batter will leave a clear, smooth print. Remove from flame and add beaten eggs in two portions. Beat thoroughly after adding first portion of eggs. Beat until smooth and even in texture after the last half is added. Drop batter on a lightly greased cookie sheet using one heaping tablespoon of batter for each large puff. Bake in Gas oven at 450 degrees for 10 minutes, then reduce temperature to 375 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes longer until puffs are nicely browned and firm to touch. Turn off heat and let set in oven to partially dry the interior. Makes 12 large puffs. Fill

Chocolate Cream Filling

- 2 C. scalded milk
- 4 Tbsp. flour
- 1/2 C. sugar
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 2 sq. (2 oz.) melted unweetened chocolate, cooled
- 8 eggs
- 1/2 C. sugar
- 1 Tbsp. butter or margarine
- 1 tsp. vanilla flavoring
- 1/2 tsp. almond flavoring (optional)

Scald milk. Thoroughly combine flour, sugar and salt. Add 1/2 C. scalded milk, stirring to a smooth paste. Then slowly add the rest of milk, stirring to keep uncooked lumps from forming. Cook over simmer flame, stirring until smooth and thick enough to mound slightly. Stir cooled, melted chocolate into thickened filling. Break eggs into bowl, beat with fork; add 1/2 C. sugar, mix well. Then slowly stir milk mixture into egg mixture. Cook 5 minutes longer over simmer flame, stirring constantly. Remove from flame, add butter or margarine, pour into bowl. Cool, then cover and chill. Add flavoring.

Meatless Dishes For Lenten Meals Are Offered Here

Do you have any recipes that you would share with Herald readers? Preparing meatless dishes for Lent can be a monotonous chore, so we offer here three suggestions from the files of Mrs. David Goldschmidt, Atwater avenue.

Mrs. Goldschmidt, well known for her culinary ability, offers these recipes which are inexpensive to prepare and very tasty.

Cottage Cheese Rice Croquettes

1 1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups soft bread crumbs
2 eggs
Dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons milk
Butter
Whole grain corn
Peas

Combine the cottage cheese, rice, salt, bread crumbs and one egg slightly beaten. Shape like cones and roll in the dry bread crumbs, crushed finely. Dip in the remaining egg, beaten slightly and mix with the milk. Roll in crumbs again and allow to stand for a few minutes. Fry in deep hot fat (385 deg. F) until golden brown. Drain on unglazed paper. Serve with buttered corn and peas. Serves six.

Salmon and Corn Loaf

Child Problems and Solutions

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, PhD

When those of us who are now over fifty were schoolchildren, we began to steal away from young children fairy tales and animated animal stories, and to cut down the literary diet of these young children to factual materials and here-and-now stories.

These same writers burned up, symbolically, those children's books which had stories or features in them purporting to teach any moral lesson or to inspire the child to want to do right. They said you can't teach morals with words but only by action and "in the immediate situation." Therefore, fables and stories with a moral purpose soon disappeared from books for children.

But they are coming back. Just read the following from a current specialist on children's literature: "Children appear to like the authority of instruction, of aspiration. In conducting my amateur poll, I have yet to find a book really popular with children, which does not teach a lesson or point out a code of conduct."

Some teachers have supposed they would be considered old-fashioned if they talked with their children at school about manners and conduct away from school.

However, in very recent years, a few teachers, not fearing to be called out-of-date, are discovering that school children like to talk over matters of manners and conduct when they can do so without fear of blame but in a comfortable atmosphere.

Some parents, too, find it possible to make the child, five, twelve or fifteen want to talk with them at comfortable times about doing right. What an opportunity the father of the family has for good influence in these quiet get-togethers.

Mrs. Allen Is Speaker For Association Meeting

Tea Is Served Following Talk

"Ten nights in a bed roll," might well be the title of Mrs. Frederick Allen's talk given to members of the Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church, Friday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. Allen, wife of the assistant pastor of the Broad Street Presbyterian church, Columbus, related incidents from her trip to the missions of the southwest. Her at times humorous and other times, deeply serious descriptions of the traveling adult seminary which she attended last summer with 50 other Presbyterians, was very interesting.

Her trip began with a flight from Columbus to Albuquerque, New Mexico. The speed of travel was abruptly reduced to an "accommodation train" to Las Vegas, New Mexico. All of the other passengers were of Spanish and Indian lineage. The trip to mission stations was undertaken over bumpy desert roads in cars.

Trucks carried provisions, suit cases and bed rolls. Meals were taken chuck-wagon style, eaten from tin plates on planks or on the ground. Nights were spent sleeping in bed rolls on the sand, watching the beautiful desert skies, even as most of the missionaries now spend their nights on the circuit from house to house.

Mrs. Allen had high praise for the friendliness of the west and wonderful Granada Missions, one of the largest Presbyterian missions in the west. She spoke of its history and gave amusing incidents of the need and scramble for baths when reaching there after their dusty trail.

Visits to Santa Fe, the Grand Canyon, Kayenta, a little mission, Chimaya and the cowboy roundups were described.

Mrs. Allen paid tribute to the hard working missionaries and their individual struggles toward achievement.

Mrs. J. B. Stevenson introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Oscar Root, president of the organization, was in charge of the brief business meeting.

Mrs. Clifford Watson conducted the devotional service.

Miss Ann Downing played two piano solos by Bach.

Mrs. Charles May, chairman and Mrs. Sewell Dunton, co-chairman of group C and Mrs. C. E. Davis and Mrs. Clifford Watson, of group D were in charge of the tea which followed.

Mrs. Donald Mitchell presided at the silver service and the table was centered with an arrangement of fern and white carnations. The St. Patrick's day theme was carried throughout.

For your next party try serving these tasty cream puff shells filled with a rich chocolate cream filling. They'll be a hit with your guests —also with you, for they are a joy to make.

Beat until smooth and even in texture after the last half is added. Drop batter on a lightly greased cookie sheet using one heaping tablespoon of batter for each large puff. Bake in Gas oven at 450 degrees for 10 minutes, then reduce temperature to 375 degrees for 30 to 35 minutes longer until puffs are nicely browned and firm to touch. Turn off heat and let set in oven to partially dry the interior. Makes 12 large puffs. Fill

Child Problems and Solutions

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, PhD

When those of us who are now over fifty were schoolchildren, we read fables in our school readers and loved them. Some of us had a whole volume of Aesop's Fables, and we read these fables over and over again just for fun.

The very young fathers and mothers rarely or never had read fables in their schoolbooks or heard fables anywhere. Even today you might search through primary readers in almost any elementary school of the United States without finding a single fable.

Nevertheless, even into schoolbooks published in very recent years, a few fables and folk tales are slipping. In the past few years several of the children's magazines have printed a fable occasionally, and one of these magazines has carried one or more fables in practically every issue since its beginning.

It has also printed a number of stories and picture features with an obvious purpose to inspire the young listener or reader to want to do right. The editor informs me that these stories and features have proved to be the most popular parts of the magazine. His report is contrary to the prevailing notion.

In a recent column I observed that, during the early decades of this century, writers on early childhood education managed to inspire a band of "robbers" who began to steal away from young children fairy tales and animated animal stories, and to cut down the literary diet of these young children to factual materials and here-and-now stories.

These same writers burned up, symbolically, those children's books which had stories or features in them purporting to teach a moral lesson or to inspire the child to want to do right. They said you can't teach morals with words but only by action and "in the immediate situation." Therefore, fables and stories with a moral purpose soon disappeared from books for children.

But they are coming back. Just read the following from a current specialist on children's literature: "Children appear to like the authority of instruction, of aspiration. In conducting my amateur poll, I have yet to find a book really popular with children, which does not teach a lesson or point out a code of conduct."

Some teachers have supposed they would be considered old-fashioned if they talked with their children at school about manners and conduct away from school.

However, in very recent years, a few teachers, not fearing to be called out-of-date, are discovering that school children like to talk over matters of manners and conduct when they can do so without fear of blame but in a comfortable atmosphere.

Some parents, too, find it possible to make the child, five, twelve or fifteen want to talk with them at comfortable times about doing right. What an opportunity the father of the family has for good influence in these quiet get-togethers.

Crowd Boos KofC's Protest Filed Against Don Gehrmann

CLEVELAND, March 15 — The top-billed one-mile run at the Knights of Columbus' 12th annual track meet here Friday night was just another race, because Don Gehrmann stayed home in Milwaukee.

As a result, Gehrmann's rival, Fred Will, the flying FBI agent who has beaten Gehrmann the last two times out, won by about five yards in an unimpressive 4:10.8.

As a result, too, sponsors of the meet are protesting Gehrmann's absence to the National AAU and asking his suspension.

Rickey C. Tanno, president of the meet, said the protest will be made because Gehrmann waited until late Friday afternoon to say his wife's illness would keep him home. She is expecting a baby.

Tanno said when he telephoned the Gehrmann home in Milwaukee, Mrs. Gehrmann answered and called her husband. The star miler said he had a doctor's certificate on his wife's condition and rejected pleas he catch a late plane for Cleveland and run in the meet.

A crowd of 9,345 heard an announcer ask that they cheer the officials' action in asking Gehrmann's suspension. Instead, they got two thunderous rounds of boos from the paying customers.

Only one meet record was broken. Milton Mead of Michigan high-jumped six feet, six and one-half inches, which was one-sixteenth of an inch more than Dick Phillips of Brown did here in 1948.

Cleveland's Harrison Dillard won the 45-yard high hurdles event for the seventh straight time, clocking five and five-tenths seconds.

Don Laz and Rev. Robert Richards repeated their feat of last year here by bettering 15 feet in the pole vault. Both cleared 15 feet and three-eighths inch, but failed man once employed an excellent technical economist, one of the best in the world, Dr. Edwin G. Nourse. But he let him go because Nourse wanted to be an economist and not politician.

Curious statements appear in this book, like this one: "... the president must be a sort of super-public relations man. His powers are great, but he must know how to make people get along together."

The Constitution says nothing about that. If that is Harry Truman's concept of the Presidency, why does he not get along with Congress? No President in our history has had such a difficult time with Congress.

Mr. Truman gives every evidence of not quite understanding the constitutional relations between the Executive and Legislative branches of our government.

Yet, Mr. Truman does seem to realize that the country could get along without him. He says: "There is no indispensable man in a democracy. When a republic comes to a point where a man is indispensable, then we have a Caesar."

"I do not believe the fate of the nation should depend upon the life or health or welfare of any one man."

How true! How true! three times at 15 feet, three inches, which would have broken their meet record of last year by two inches.

Doing What Comes Naturally

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK — (P) — Every once in a while something comes out of Hollywood that looks and acts natural.

This is the case with Aldo Ray. He is a 25-year-old former Navy frogman. The film people aren't quite sure whether in Aldo they have another Gary Cooper or just another brief-twinkling male starlet.

Ray isn't too worried either way. He likes acting and the prospect of a life spent in fretting about the income tax in the higher bracket. On the other hand, it wouldn't destroy his belief in himself if he had to return to his old job as constable in his hometown—Crockett, Calif.

"I enjoyed being a constable, and I have a lot of friends there," he said. "It won't break my heart to go back to the people I know."

Ray is a blond six-foot, 195-pound, easy-going guy with a relaxed manner that films well and a gravel-husky voice that people remember.

He looks like the football player he used to be, and he got into the movie business by accident. One of his five brothers saw a newspaper ad calling for football players to play in "Saturday's Hero." Aldo borrowed his brother's car, drove to Hollywood and got a job.

"Well, he's no actor," the executives agreed after seeing the picture. Then they gave him a couple of bit roles in two other pictures and weren't sure. Ray acted so natural he confused them.

They gambled on him by assigning him in a co-starring role with Judy Holliday in "The Marrying Kind," and gave him the lead spot in the forthcoming "From Here to Eternity." He is now about the hottest prospect in the industry, but his career still awaits the verdict of fandom.

His bosses sent him here to go through the hoopla customary in building up a new film figure—interviews, personal appearances, endorsements of dog foods and so forth. Through it all he has kept his balance extremely well, and hasn't had to call for a larger hat size.

"But they've kept me so busy I catch myself shaking my own hand in revolving doors," he remarked, grinning.

One afternoon he sneaked a little time out from his pre-arranged schedule to do something he himself wanted. He dropped into a bookstore and bought a copy of Elizabeth Browning's "Sonnets from the Portuguese," a volume of love poetry.

"I've always wanted to read it," he said. "I never got to finish college, but I don't see why that should keep me from going on learning."

Ray is a normal, healthy-minded guy and dislikes studio publicity tub-thumping about his wartime service. An expert swimmer, he was one of the Navy frogmen assigned to clear the beaches at Okinawa of underwater obstacles before the infantry landed. When a press agent brought this up, Aldo laughed and said:

"Yes, it was real rugged—there wasn't a shot fired while I was in the water. The Japs had already pulled back from that beach."

His biggest victory in Hollywood was his flat refusal to change his name.

"They wanted to call me John Harrison," he said. "What would my friends think of that? I couldn't stand it."

The net result is that he is

3 New Members Added To SCO Angus Group

Three new members were added to the South Central Ohio Angus Breeders' Association Thursday night during a meeting in Wardell Party Home.

New members added to the group were William Brown of Deercreek Township, Dale Lude of Belmont and J. C. Renker of Jerusalem.

Guest speaker for Thursday's session was Bob Duprey of the National Angus Association. Duprey told the SCO breeders that during the last few months registered Angus sales in the U. S. have brought from $60 to $70 per head more than last year.

THE SPEAKER also told the men the breed is fast gaining recognition in the west, with more herds and more breeders stocking good Angus bulls; and he urged the men to do their best job of breeding by keeping the good stock dropped on their farms for herd improvement instead of selling the good stock and keeping the poorer stock.

During Thursday's meeting, the Angus men dug down into their pockets to offer special awards to $400 for the Angus heifer class during the 1932 Pickaway County Fair.

In addition, the men tentatively set their annual sale for Sept. 18 in Pickaway Fairgrounds.

The SCO breeders Thursday raised $150 for assistance to the state association to start a state breed magazine and contribute to employment of a state field secretary.

Next meeting of the group will be April 8 in the party home.

$13 Million Cut Off Ohio Deficit

COLUMBUS, March 15 — (P) — Ohio's general fund revenues for the eight months ended Feb. 29 exceeded estimates by $13,039,903, State Finance Director H. D. Defenbacher reports.

Thus, in eight months, the state has wiped out all but about $8 million of an expected $21 million deficit for the two-year period ending June 30, 1933. Defenbacher said the last legislature appropriated $21 million more than he had estimated would be collected in taxes.

Slingshot Vandals Getting Too Sharp

LOS ANGELES, March 15 — (P) — Slingshot vandals are getting entirely too accurate in their aim.

They raised considerable havoc earlier this week by shooting glass marbles through windows of business establishments and residences here. Thursday night a vandal from a moving automobile shot a quart of oil out of the hands of a service station attendant.

BALTIMORE, March 15 — (P) — The Sonja Henie Ice Revue and others are being sued for a total of $4,213,000 as a result of a bleacher collapse at a show last week.

Sartorial Center Gets New Start

Spring Bringing Innovations For Both Men, Women

NEW YORK, March 15 — (P) — The issue settled Tuesday in New Hampshire may be more important to you—but the men's and women's fashion centers here have some issues to which they respectfully call attention; to wit:

1. The application of industrial engineering to the women's foundation garment. That is the subject of a meeting here under the auspices of the Associated Corset & Brassiere Manufacturers, Inc. The first session topic: "Time study as a management tool for measuring production."

2. The hubbub over bra bars. One school of thought holds that the shop-with-the-brassiere-bar where the customer herself picks out what she wants is doing her a favor in this busy world. The other school holds that women shouldn't be asked to buy bras on the run. One irate bra-maker says: "No woman's figure was made by a machine and it should never be fitted like one."

3. The arrival along with spring, of peek-a-boo or eyelet cotton as a fabric covering for bra and high-waisted girdle. One maker calls it the modern version of the camisole and says: "It's made to be seen through the sheer nylon and cotton blouses."

BUT THE MEN have just as knotty fashion problems too this spring, if you believe the makers of suits and accessories.

Here are a couple of easter parade get-ups shown at the fashion show of the New York Custom Tailors Designers Club:

1. A mohair-worsted blend suit in a soft shade of green. The jacket has narrow fishmouth lapels and a slightly shorter coat length.

2. A one-button single-breasted gray cashmere jacket worn with a double-breasted vest of gray necktie silk, above black and white pin-dot worsted trousers. After the Easter parade, says the designer, that outfit would be good for attending directors' meetings.

There are other sartorial battles underway.

Makers of the new narrow neckties are trying to oust the wider sort, which they refer to scornfully as bibs.

Long-point-collar shirt-makers insist that the round-point collar worn with a pin isn't driving their products off the counters. But the makers of button-down-collar shirts just smile and say they're the ones who are reaping the sales.

Over in the men's suits division, a nationwide survey by the Clothing Manufacturers Association of the USA, reports a swing to soft fabrics such as tweeds and flannels. They also find the single-breasted jacket is gaining over the double-breasted. And the two-button model is pushing the three-button coat off the racks—so says the association.

Cave-In Kills 2

STUEBENVILLE, March 15 — (P) — The cave-in of an eight-foot-deep sewer ditch killed John Conlon, 55, and his son, James, 25, Friday in Toronto. Thirty feet of ditch gave way, completely burying the two men.

Pacifics Shun 'War' Payments

WHITTIER, Calif., March 14 — (P) — Two Quaker pacifists here have mailed their income tax returns to the Bureau of Internal Revenue, minus 72.6 per cent of the tax due, which they figure is the amount the government would spend on war.

Francis Behn Riggs, 70, retired boys' school headmaster, and his wife, Valerie, 67, said they expect the bureau to seize the missing funds from their savings accounts, "as it has been doing since 1944."

But, Mrs. Riggs, added, "there is a difference between handing the government our income tax for the military and the government taking it from us."

Doing What Comes Naturally

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—Every once in a while something comes out of Hollywood that looks and acts natural.

This is the case with Aldo Ray. He is a 25-year-old former Navy frogman. The film people aren't quite sure whether in Aldo they have another Gary Cooper or just another brief-twinkling male starlet.

Ray isn't too worried either way. He likes acting and the prospect of a life spent in fretting about the income tax in the higher bracket. On the other hand, it wouldn't destroy his belief in himself if he had to return to his old job as constable in his hometown—Crockett, Calif.

"I enjoyed being a constable, and I have a lot of friends there," he said. "It won't break my heart to go back to the people I know."

Ray is a blond six-foot, 195-pound, easy-going guy with a relaxed manner that films well and a gravel-busky voice that people remember.

He looks like the football player he used to be, and he got into the movie business by accident. One of his five brothers saw a newspaper ad calling for football players to play in "Saturday's Hero." Aldo borrowed his brother's car, drove to Hollywood and got a job.

"Well, he's no actor," the executives agreed after seeing the picture. Then they gave him a couple of bit roles in two other pictures and weren't so sure. Ray acted so natural he confused them.

They gambled on him by assigning him in a co-starring role with Judy Holliday in "The Marrying Kind," and gave him the lead spot in the forthcoming "From Here To Eternity." He is now about the hottest prospect in the industry, but his career still awaits the verdict of fandom.

His bosses sent him here to go through the hoopla customary in building up a new film figure—interviews, personal appearances, endorsements of dog foods and so forth. Through it all he has kept his balance extremely well, and hasn't had to call for a larger hat size.

"But they've kept me so busy I catch myself shaking my own hand in revolving doors," he remarked, grinning.

One afternoon he sneaked a little time out from his pre-arranged schedule to do something he himself wanted. He dropped into a bookstore and bought a copy of Elizabeth Browning's "Sonnets from the Portuguese," a volume of love poetry.

"I've always wanted to read it," he said. "I never got to finish college, but I don't see why that should keep me from going on learning."

Ray is a normal, healthy-minded guy and dislikes studio publicity tub-thumping about his wartime service. An expert swimmer, he was one of the Navy frogmen assigned to clear the beaches at Okinawa of underwater obstacles before the infantry landed. When a press agent brought this up, Aldo laughed and said:

"Yes, it was real rugged—there wasn't a shot fired while I was in the water. The Japs had already pulled back from that beach."

His biggest victory in Hollywood was his flat refusal to change his name.

"They wanted to call me John Harrison," he said. "What would my friends think of that? I couldn't stand it."

The net result is that he is

3 New Members Added To SCO Angus Group

Three new members were added to the South Central Ohio Angus Breeders' Association Thursday night during a meeting in Wardell Party Home.

New members added to the group were William Brown of Deercreek Township, Dale Lude of Belmont and J. C. Renker of Jerusalem.

Guest speaker for Thursday's session was Bob Duprey of the National Angus Association. Duprey told the SCO breeders that during the last few months registered Angus sales in the U. S. have brought from $60 to $70 per head more than last year.

THE SPEAKER also told the men the breed is fast gaining recognition in the west, with more herds and more breeders stocking good Angus bulls; and he urged the men to do their best job of breeding by keeping the good stock dropped on their farms for herd improvement instead of selling the good stock and keeping the poorer stock.

During Thursday's meeting, the Angus men dug down into their pockets to offer special awards totalling $400 for the Angus heifer class during the 1952 Pickaway County Fair.

In addition, the men tentatively set their annual sale for Sept. 18 in Pickaway Fairgrounds. The SCO breeders Thursday raised $150 for assistance to the state association to start a state breed magazine and contribute to employment of a state field secretary.

Next meeting of the group will be April 8 in the party home.

Pennsy Hunting Rabid Foxes

Since the beginning of the year hundreds of cases of foxes attacking children, women and others have been reported in scattered parts of the state. At least two persons have died as a result.

Soviet Indicates New Mig Designed

MOSCOW, March 15—(AP)—Russia indicates she has a new Mig plane designed by the same plane-building team who conceived the Korea-proved Mig-15 jet fighter.

The hint came in the award of Stalin prizes for aircraft to Artem Mikoyan and Mikhail Gurevich, designers of the Mig series, and 16 other members of Mikoyan's airplane engineering bureau. Mikoyan's first prize came to $37,500.
